RIESTE IN DARKNESS.
The lights and Trustee Gasworks have been ordered to shut down, leaving the city in darkness.

REVEREND NIGHTMARE'S ORDERLY.
Among the inmates of St. George's-in-the-East workhouse is Robert Elliott, aged 36, a member of the Florence Nightingale. The old fellow says happy Christmas.

THEY WERE CAULKED BY ICE.
Owing to the Serpentine, in London, being covered over, the 54th Christmas swimming bath was opened up until New Year's Eve. Several soldiers were present ready to complete. Bathing will keep swimming up to the end of the season.

WOMAN'S SAFE RETURN.
A banana girl has safely reached port. The woman, who was in London after the absence of some weeks; and, though there were no signs of her, she was not at all surprised. She is a young girl, with the true spirit, and sold them for a penny to children.

INCREASE OF FUNERALS IN VIENNA.
The great increase in the number of deaths in Vienna has caused a corresponding increase in the number of funerals of the cemetery, Deutscher Friedhof, are overwhelmed, while the burial grounds of the Neubau district, where all funerals have to be conducted in absolute haste.

THREE CELEBRATIONS.

During a public Thanksgiving Service at Little Parish Church, Surrey, for the capture of Jerusalem, the Vicar (the Rev. E. J. Nowell) announced that that was the third occasion on which, within those walls, the people of the parish had rejoiced over the capture of the Holy City. The previous occasions were during the Crusades in 1099 and 1229.

BRITISH SOLDIERS IN PARIS.

Paris maintained all its Christmas customs. There was a great Christmas fête at the "Levee Club" in the Place de la République, where the British soldiers, who were in the trenches, enjoyed

NOVEL WAY TO EVICT TENANT.
The Coroner at Whitstable and the jury severely censured, the owner of a house, a woman, who to get rid of a tenant, an elderly man aged 73, removed all the doors and windows from her house. The tenant died of a heart disease, accelerated by exposure to the cold. The Coroner added that it was a most

GERMANS AND HINDENBURG. The Berliner Zeitung has published a daring article severely criticising Hindenburg in regard to the Austro-German offensive against Italy. The paper boldly asks Hindenburg by what right he is sacrificing the flower of German youth to assist Austria in a mad enterprise. The paper concludes: "We have made too many sacrifices for Austria, who has not won a single battle without outside help."

A telegram from Stockholm to the Morning Post says:—The report that Stockholm is to be visited as the venue of the Russo-German peace negotiations is now confirmed by M. Gromyko, Lenin's representative at Stockholm. He states that the negotiations in all likelihood will begin here early in January, when all the delegates now at Brest-Litovsk are expected to arrive here.

... widespread feeling that the changed conditions of British agriculture brought about by the war are not likely to last very many years before the world has once more settled down to peace. Great Britain, it is considered, is easily able to hold her own in the production of the staple stock.

ON'S OLDEST INHABITANT.

1926, and as a lad remembered being present at the lying-in-state of William IV., and seeing the Victoria enter Windsor after her coronation. He could recall many Royalerals at the Castle, usually at night by torchlight. He witnessed two Eton Montems at Salisbury, and often went from Windsor to London coach.

SUGGLERS' ARMoured CAR.

A new development in the smuggling industry on the German-Dutch frontier is the use of a small motor car. A few days ago one of the monsters rushed along the Bergendal road, by Nyneogen, towards the German frontier. It was fired at by Dutch sentries, but the bullet did not the slightest effect. The car rushed into the zone on the frontier line, and stopped about 100 or six yards inside German territory. A fire was spread over the car, and a few hours later some men came and removed a quantity of smuggled goods, including leather belts, to the value of about £4,200.

to the peace negotiations. The Foamske says:—"It is evident that England may be considered to be defeated, but we must not let that fate of our Colonies, Mesopotamia, Arabia, and Palestine will be decided on the Western front. No one doubts the issue of the decisive blow now impending. Our foreign policy aims must be for ever to destroy England's European influence. As our great military leaders have made peace on the Eastern front possible, so they will now secure us peace on the Western front."

telegram from The Hague announces the death at Brussels of the Comte John d'Oultre, Honorary Grand Marshal of the Court of King of the Belgians. The Comte d'Oultre died of the effects of his internment in prison. In spite of his advanced years he was brutally seized by the Germans when he lay in bed with severe bronchitis. Eventually Count was set at liberty through the intervention of the King of Spain. He might doubtless have recovered from his illness, had he not been seized by the Germans took him and considerable attention has been paid in recent years to the discovery of substitutes for timber material for paper. One of the most promising of the materials investigated is the waste of the wattle tree. This waste material is available in England and in Natal, where the extract is being produced and expected to take the place of the extract which formerly made in Germany, largely from shipped from South Africa. The problem of utilising the waste bark has been investigated by the Imperial Institute, and as the result of five trials it is now shown that it is capable of being converted into an excellent brown paper or mill-board.

Market Prices.—At Strokestown market oats sold at 27s. 6d. and 30s. per barrel, and hay at 12s. per cwt.

The Athlone Seed Rate.—The estimate of the Athlone market gardeners for the payment of £1,100 seed rate, incurred in connection with the increased tillage of the garden, was approved by the committee, and on Christmas Day Athlone was in complete darkness, owing to the failure of the gas supply. The committee have been asked to explain, which is now being made good.

Scarcity of Flour in the West.—There was a scarcity of flour in the West on Friday. Several of the bakeries were closed down. There was also a scarcity of tea, but no danger of a shortage of sugar.

Dispensary Medical Officers' Salaries.—The Local Government Board have sanctioned the salaries of the five dispensary medical officers' salaries by £20 a year with increments of £10 up to £120 a year. The £120 a year is attained after 12 years.

Guardians Surcharged.—At a meeting of the Ballina Guardians on Monday, another application for a surcharge of £100 was made for £100 for salary paid to Dr. Walsh, whose appointment was terminated on the 1st of January 1910. The Guardians have refused to proceed with the application, on grounds that he was of military age.

Ballina Local Board Defied.—The L.G. have refused to sanction the appointment of Mr. Thomas Callaghan as Relieving Officer of Ballina. The Ballina Guardians have refused to proceed with a new election, and have decided to continue Mr. Callaghan as Relieving Officer for 1910.

Prepared School in District Workhouse.—Very Rev. Canon O'Reilly, P.P. Killauea, writing to the Board of Management of the workhouse, near for the Boardroom of the old Killauea Workhouse to be used as a national school for the winter.

Nuns as Nurses.—The L.G.B., writing to the Ballina Board of Guardians, refused to alter their decision to employ nuns as nurses.

Police Commissioner Joseph P. Cahill, who declined to sanction the increase of $1 a year in the daily rate, said he was not prepared to make any such decision, but stating they would sanction bonuses that would be paid to the men on the basis of the number of cases they solved. They also allowed for religious communities. They added that the Guardians could not expect that the police would be able to do anything for the purpose of granting preferential treatment to the nursing staff of the union. The consideration of the matter was postponed.

Killed on Railway near Kildare.—A sad occurrence took place on Christmas Eve on the B.15 railway line near Kildare, when a 37-year-old draper's assistant, aged about 37 years, lost his life. After the train had passed Newbridge station, the train was seen to stop at a carriage window; and it is said that he fell out of the window. The train was passing through the Curragh siding. The man was seen to fall in a way which would not have stopped until it had passed the station. The train was seen to stop at the Curragh siding, and the stationmaster, with some of the staff, went out on a wagon, when they found the man lying on the ground. The train was siding with the skull smashed and one leg cut off. A ticket for Maryborough was found in the man's pocket. The body was removed to the Kildare Railway Station.

BELFAST AND DISTRICT.

Police Catching the Sufferer Dumb.—Cable Terence O'Donnell, a well-known member of the Belfast Police Force, stationed in Smithfield division, was arrested on Christmas morning. He was on duty at the time.

Food Prosecutions.—A number of cases for infringement of the various Food Orders were heard at the Belfast Police Court yesterday.

Beef, ranging from 12s. to 20s. and costs of the beef were not a subject for criticism in these cases compared with the penalties imposed for the same offence. It was pointed out that it is contended that the fines are so small that they are not sufficient to deter others from repeating the offence.

Pressure at Post Office.—The Belfast Central Post Office incurred its normal appearance on the morning of the 10th inst. when the parcels and correspondence. Never was the traffic so large as during the present epidemic, and it was estimated that the parcels office was at least one year premature, in view of the fact that the parcels office had been closed for 1700 men, whereas pressure with the Colours. During the Christmas pressure 45,000 parcels were delivered in the Belfast office, and the Belfast office received 10,000 letters and 1,500 registered parcels were dealt with. This is the largest number known in the history of the office for the last 10 years.

Liable Master's Suicide.—An inquest was held in Laidlaw's yesterday afternoon on the body of Joseph Craig, which was found in the River Liffey on the 10th inst. Craig was 36 years of age, and was capable master of the Liffey Gold Club. It appeared from the evidence of the coroner, that Craig had been drinking since the morning of the 9th inst. and that he had been drinking since the morning of the 9th inst. and that he had been drinking since the morning of the 9th inst. At about 3 o'clock, when he was looking for some belonging to the golf club, she found the body of Craig in the river.
